At the forefront of veterinary medicine...

We are a privately owned emergency and specialist veterinary hospital. Our services provide a 24-hour, Advanced Treatment Centre outfitted with brand-new, world-class, 'cutting-edge' technology and equipment. Since opening in June 2020, our business has grown from 35 employees to 140+ dedicated and passionate veterinary professionals.

We are looking for veterinary mobile nurses interested in joining us on a full-time or part-time basis. We have a busy mobile specialist service, that travels from clinic to clinic performing ultrasounds and minor ultrasound guided procedures (echocardiograms, abdominal ultrasounds and minor abdominal and thoracic ultrasound sampling, ie FNA's, Trucuts, abdominocentesis and thoracentesis) within general veterinary practices throughout Sydney. All interested and eligible candidates must have the ability to provide the gold standard level client and patient care we are widely recognised for.

About You:

You will maintain a cohesive and positive team and work environment by encouraging a positive culture and leading with a "can do" attitude. With being on the road and going into many clinics, you will need to set an example and standard for VSOS by being professional, polite and encouraging while in these other clinics.

About the Role:

Your main duties will include:

- Safely driving the work vehicle from VSOS to clinics
- Ensuring the vehicle and ultrasound bag is fully stocked at all times with the appropriate medical equipment
- Assisting the Veterinarian in performing ultrasounds and being able to set up for minor abdominal or thoracic sampling procedures

Hours:

- Part-time: Minimum 2 days per week: minimum 22 hours per week; flexible rostering
- Weekdays only. No weekend work is required.

Experience and Qualifications:

- Certificate IV nursing is essential with 4 years in-hospital experience.
- A strong interest in small animal medicine
